

Title: The Gospel

Subject: What the Gospel truly is

Lyrics by: C. Scott

Produced by: Instrumental for Red Ice Productions

Copyright 2004

Scripture Inspiration:

Matt. 7:13-27; Rom. 5 entire chapter; 1Cor. 15:1-4; Heb. 2:9, 17, 18

Read these in this order: Rev. 4:11; 1 Cor. 10:13; Ps. 16:11; Rom. 3:23; 1 John 3:4; Rom. 6:23; Eph. 2:1; Heb. 9:27; Rev. 20:15; Prov. 14:12; Titus 3:5; Eph. 2:8, 9; Rom. 5:8, 1 Pet. 3:18a, John 14:6; Acts 3:19; 16:31; Rom. 10:13; John 5:24

(One Verse)

Understand it God's standards perfection we can't attain His commandments your guilty of all ten son if you break one all even small sin son offends Him great your guilty if your Janet or Justin Timberlake

Believe me sinners are His enemies

He's promised to punish all sin severely being honest He's mad with the wicked so hell, was made to satisfy God's wrath do you get it?

The cure, ain't Yom Kippur for the corrupt the debts, too high for sure for filing bankrupt our mind, will, and emotions are dirty as Madonna kissing Britney for promotion

We can't gain His favor by good works good deeds don't—offset behavior that's bad we're separated, devastated need a referee we need one fast

a mediator to appease God's wrath

Jesus, we bust

when He was executed justified all us

God treated Christ like us so so He could treat us like Christ

Who knew no sin, but became sin and died our death, and that amounts

Christ's righteousness in our bank accounts I'm out