(Verse 1)

We believe in only one God

nope, not, in three gods, cause there ain't, no god like you, but you and there ain't no god besides God but false god's like brahma, allah, buddah and other pagan rulers

Faking, flaking, taking liars lake of fire the God that we trust, trust is not just “a” god but “the” God

God ain't man and man ain't no we can't become Him ain't described as a woman or impersonal

Cause we can get to know him on the surface, it seems

He's a force, a thing in the trees, tables, and the pinto beans creation is distinct from it's creator of course

He ain't the universe or nature but separate from material things

I'm old school like a clip on tie

No need for fearing this cool I'm just a fool and a lyricist whose used as a tool are you hearing this Satan ain't God's nemesis

The God of the Bible has no rivals you digging this

(Hook)

Trinity, Trinity, Elohim

One times one times one equals one

One God not three, but three are one

You can't comprehend, but you must apprehend him...

(Repeat 1X)

(Verse 2)

It's critical God's not three separate individual's like Shaq, Kobe, McGrady Tri-theism baby That's right just as phony, God's one person only
He ain't schizophrenic at times Human reasoning be wicked thank God he got specific precise
'til He spoke we ignorant, what He wrote I rhyme and flip it, rip it, (spit it)
"let us, make, man, in our, own, image, and
"let us, go down, let us, con-, fuse, they speech
Now, here's a clue
The word "us" in Genesis, Elohim the plural form of God in the Hebrew (What it mean?) Two or more, there's evidence for three God is one, but his, oneness involves the Trinity Can it be? The Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit yall
All three—have the same attributes and characteristics
All three—omnipotent, omni-present, and omniscient
All three—have the same substance, nature, and are spirit
All three—created the universe and what's in it All three—have duties and roles that are different
All three—are holy; all three—are truth
All three—are eternal if you looked you'd see the proof Now this essential Christian anthem is very hard to fathom silly rabbit when you apply your own mathematics one plus one, plus one's three but one times one, times one's, one What? Three who's, plural yet singular
God ain't some giant man, but beyond what we can comprehend
What? He's supernatural
So don't be surprised if he defies the natural

(Hook)

I know God...I know the real God...
I believe...
Team Elohim in the place supreme Unity, community, diversity, and unity
