(Verse 1)

Never ever in danger before the manger Christ was chilling with the Father and the Spirit tight thrilling and building in Heaven's ceiling not dealing with villains right independent, self-existent never alone, let it be known Before He atoned for sinning
The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit carried on marathon fellowshiping within the Godhead – there's unity, community that's what I read – diversity and unity With, His glory and splendor shook He bore the sins of pimps, thugs, addicts, crooks, and whores, gamblers, hustlers and gang bangers (Matt. 9:10-13)
He didn't have to do it, but He did the thang
But let me break it down so you feel me man Elohim had a chat planning to redeem a few wicked in the pack but it required that the Son be sacrificial now the devil need a tissue man

(Hook)

Ooh! Wee, (Ooh! Wee)
Look at all Jesus did for me
Ooh! Wee, (Ooh! Wee)
Left His kingdom to die for me
Ooh! Wee, (Ooh! Wee)
Lived before the crib yes indeed!
Ooh! Wee, (Ooh! Wee)
Jesus Christ is God so your head you better bob put your hands up now

(Verse 2)

He got to stepping without a weapon right out of heaven repping slipped on flesh and bone just like cologne gently went to a bug with a dent from a Bentley chose not to use some attributes then He Added human nature to His Godhood kind of odd, the hypostatic up in my hood?
God and human one hundred percent weak yet omnipotent, omniscient but ignorant

Near but omnipresent, born of a virgin not contaminated sperm and disguised as a Jew in the urban who became acquainted with the poor and the pain
The homeless, the hurt, hungry, lonely, and lame witnessed miracles and healings—yes He did this what He did on earth proved that He was the Messiah when I hear tracks like this, I think I'll never retire
But if I did I'd probably pass the torch over to Rayza and Jahword I'm like a grand father sitting (sit down) feeding the birds, speaking and teaching and reading the word in the park to children...building

(Verse 3)

Who is He? The Pre-Existent and predicted Christ
Who is He? The Preserver and Sustainer of life
Who is He? The A to Z, the Alpha and the Omega
Who is He? God in Flesh, Who is He? The Creator
Who is He? More than a man, a prophet, preacher or teacher Who is He? More than a legend or a, historical feature Who is He? The Messiah that we blaze in your speakers the Savior of all but especially believers Names don't mean the same as they did back then way back when they depicted whether a person was good or was wicked for instances, dawg Abraham means, father of many So peep this Jenny, any, everybody learn The (Son of God) term and what this means it don't mean offspring it means order of God He didn't become the Son, but was always the Son (Son of Man), not just "a" son of man but "the" Son of Man cause He represented all men the perfect man, man as God intended man the first Adam tripped so He's the second Adam (The Only Begotten Son) which in Greek it means, I mean, it means, that, He's unique fullness of Deity in Bodily Form not simply a reflection everything that makes God, God His exact representation I'm pacing the stage and placing emphasis, parenthesis on Jesus' name co-equal, co-eternal with the Father and the Spirit Did you know? He's known as I AM which means self-existence Did you know? He's known as YAHWEH and KURIOS
Did you know? He's known as ELOHIM and THEOS
Did you know? He's known as ADONAI and LOGOS Greek and Hebrew words, reserved for God only terms

To equate Himself with God would be blasphemous unless He was in fact dawg God with us pokes holes in your theology God is who He got to be JESUS...you owe Him an apology

(Hook)
